

Bubbles

A rising plume drawn from the fine-bubble diffuser Ryan was designing — bubbles leaving one source and spreading as they climb. The concept that points at his engineering work.

ACTUAL SIZE ON THE HAT — PRINTED 1:1

2 1/4 in tall

4 1/2 in — the full width of a cap front

The dashed line is all the room there is to stitch into. Hold this page against a cap to judge it. One thread throughout — charcoal on a lime cap.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Your name _____

☐ Love it ☐ It's fine ☐ Not this one

Anything you'd change _____

Still to decide: cap colour, and whether the hat carries a date.
