

Spine

A lateral view of a real spine beside the name — the S-curve of cervical, thoracic and lumbar, vertebrae growing toward the base, spinous processes sweeping down and shingling over one another, and a fused sacrum. Straight Up Spine & Posture, and the concept tied to the practice.

ACTUAL SIZE ON THE HAT — PRINTED 1:1

The dashed line is all the room there is to stitch into. Hold this page against a cap to judge it. Shown in dark thread for clarity — on a navy cap it stitches as above.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Your name _____

☐ Love it ☐ It's fine ☐ Not this one

Anything you'd change _____

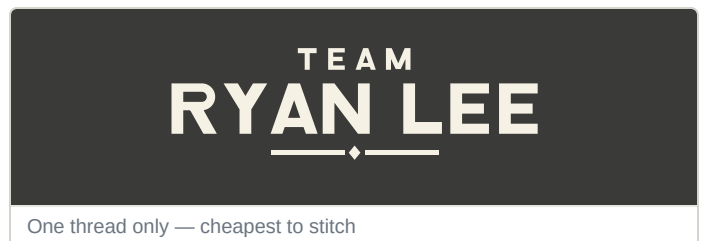

Still to decide: cap colour, and whether the hat carries a date.

Varsity

TEAM set small above a full-width RYAN LEE, closed by a rule and a diamond. The plainest of the three and the one that reads fastest from across a room.

On a khaki or stone cap

One thread only — cheapest to stitch

ACTUAL SIZE ON THE HAT — PRINTED 1:1

2¼ in
tall

4½ in — the full width of a cap front

The dashed line is all the room there is to stitch into. Hold this page against a cap to judge it. Shown in dark thread for clarity — on a navy cap it stitches as above.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Your name _____

☐ Love it ☐ It's fine ☐ Not this one

Anything you'd change _____

Still to decide: cap colour, and whether the hat carries a date.

Bubbles

A rising plume drawn from the fine-bubble diffuser Ryan was designing — bubbles leaving one source and spreading as they climb. The concept that points at his engineering work.

On a khaki or stone cap

One thread only — cheapest to stitch

ACTUAL SIZE ON THE HAT — PRINTED 1:1

2¼ in
tall

4½ in — the full width of a cap front

The dashed line is all the room there is to stitch into. Hold this page against a cap to judge it. Shown in dark thread for clarity — on a navy cap it stitches as above.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

Your name _____

☐ Love it ☐ It's fine ☐ Not this one

Anything you'd change _____

Still to decide: cap colour, and whether the hat carries a date.